

Madi Davis' New Single "Enter The Fire" Reviewed at Cannes Film Market

Madi Davis Announces New Title Track for Movie 'Enter The Fire' Reviewed at 2017 Cannes Film Market

The newest single from Madi Davis, which will release June 23, 2017 is the title track for a new movie being pre-sold at the 2017 Cannes Film Market. Enter The Fire, is an action film starring Lou Ferrigno and Ian Lauer set in San Francisco and is expected to get a lot of attention this year.

"I really liked the script and the lyrics just came to me" said Madi "I am excited to work with the team at Funny How Films and Wonderphil on the soundtrack and score for my first movie project".

Enter The Fire, is a full length action film that chronicles the personal struggles, relationships and triumphs of the lead character played by Ian Lauer. "the script, action and acting are so good I wanted the song to reflect the same energy and emotion" Madi noted, "It is different from my last album, Above The Waves. I hope people like it!"

Madi partnered with producer, Michael Child, from her first album, and fellow NBC The Voice alum Darius Dixon on the single. "We call them my dream team."

Producer, Doug Marschke, of Funny How Films said " the movie turned out great and the Cannes market has been very positive for us, we are excited about the release of the title track from Madi and can't wait for everyone to see and hear "Enter The Fire."

The single, Enter The Fire, is available everywhere music is sold online. More information at www.madiannedavis.com/enterthefire.
